PALACE YOUNG COMPANY

16-25's

Are you 16-25? Looking for an opportunity to develop your creative, technical, or performance skills, in a self-driven, collaborative, and inclusive group?

Want a rewarding way to get back out in the world and have fun?

Then the Palace Young Company is for you!

With the Young Company, you'll:

- develop skills and experience in the arts through masterclasses and workshops.
- build your social network and develop contacts within the arts and creative industries.
- gain and create professional experiences and opportunities.
- be creative and make things for audiences to see.
- be part of something fun, ambitious, and inclusive.

Oh, and it's free!

HOW TO APPLY

Send us some short paragraphs, a video, or an audio clip telling us a bit about yourself! Tell us who you are, what your interests are, and if there's anything in particular that you might like to get out of the Young Company.

Make sure to include which area(s) you are interested in getting involved with. These could be:

- performing
- directing
- set design
- costume design
- marketing
- choreography
- music
- producing

If the Palace Young Company is suitable for you, we'll then be in touch to work with you to determine the nature of your commitment, where you might fit into this or future projects, and chat about your skills and interests.

All applications and enquiries should be sent to takepart@watfordpalacetheatre.co.uk Remember to also send us your name, email address and your age, and any other way you're happy for us to contact you.

This is a rolling application. Please do register your interest now!

Watford Palace Theatre is committed to diversity and inclusion. If you have any additional requirements and need assistance with sending us your application, please let us know.

FAQs

What's the commitment?

The 18-25's group meets monthly to discuss ideas and start forming new projects with our input. Closer to performances, you'll be meeting more regularly.

Do I have to be from Watford?

Nope!

I don't know if I'm good enough!

No such thing! If you're enthused by this opportunity but not sure if it's right for you, it is. We're interested in hearing from people of all confidence levels and levels of experience.

I'm not an actor, can I still be involved?

Absolutely! The aim of the company is for it to be as self-driven as possible, and we're looking for people with a variety of theatre making skills, be that directing, writing, choreography, producing, tech, marketing, or something else!

If I perform, will I have to sing and dance?

Some projects will include movement and possibly dance, and if you're a singer, then we might want to showcase your skills, but neither of these things are necessary to take part!

Why should I join WPT's Young Company in particular?

Unlike other young companies, we offer a multi-artform group, that can determine their own projects, which don't have to be defined by narrative. Predominantly we're a theatre, but you could be interested in film, outdoor-arts, or any form of entertainment. We'll support you and find practitioners who can help you develop the relevant skills you need.

I have access requirements; can I still join?

Absolutely, yes! We want this group to be accessible to everyone, so if you have particular access needs, please do let us know.
